New, shorter route introduced for Dec. 13th Elba Christmas Parade

The City of Elba is delighted to announce the return of its Christmas Festival and the annual Parade on Saturday, December 13, 2025.

Join city and Elba Chamber officials on Gingerbread Lane (historic downtown square) for an afternoon and evening of holiday magic and family fun to kick-off the festive season.

The celebration begins with fun afternoon activities designed for all ages, around the Coffee County Courthouse in Downtown Elba. Attendees can enjoy a variety of entertainment, vendors, Miss Christmas Pageant, Christmas photos, and seasonal treats, creating a perfect atmosphere for making cherished Christmas memories.

"Details on specific activities, parade route, and times will be announced in The Elba Clipper, stated Chamber director Sandy Williams."

The highlight of the evening is the much-anticipated Christmas Parade, which steps-off at 6:00 PM. The parade will feature brilliantly lit floats, local marching bands, community groups, and, of course, a spectacular appearance by Santa Claus, officially ushering him into Elba for the holiday season. The parade route, which has been shortened for this year's event, is expected to draw spectators from across the Wiregrass to witness the festive display of lights and community spirit. [See Map of New Parade route accompanying this article]

- WHEN: Saturday, December 13, 2025

"This is the cornerstone of our holiday season, and we encourage everyone to come out for an afternoon of community and Christmas cheer," said Mayor Tim Johnson. "The finale, our annual parade, features the arrival of Santa. It is truly a magical moment for our town."

Enterprise man sentenced to 25 years for manslaughter from May 25, 2021 death case

On Tuesday Nov. 25, Dorian Bell appeared in the Circuit Court of Coffee County, Enterprise Division, before the Honorable Henry "Sonny" Reagan for a sentencing hearing. He had previously entered a guilty plea to an amended charge of manslaughter.

Bell originally was charged with murder for the May 25, 2021, killing of Amez Shipman in the 100 block of Lagoon Drive in Enterprise. The State was represented by Deputy District Attorney Mary Katherine Head.

"Had the case proceeded to trial the State had intended to introduce evidence that on May 25, 2021, there was a gathering of people at a residence prior to the Enterprise High School graduation," 12th Judicial Circuit District Attorney James Tarbox said. "Amez Shipman was present at the residence and both he and Bell had been drinking. Shipman and Bell had engaged in a physical altercation inside the residence that eventually continued outside."

Tarbox said the altercation had at one point been playful in nature but then Bell produced a handgun.

"Witness testimony and a 911 call indicated that there were multiple gunshots with a first shot being fired some 15 or more seconds before additional shots," he said. "Amez Shipman was shot twice in the chest. After shooting Shipman, Bell fled the scene and was captured a short time later by the Enterprise Police Department."

During the legal proceedings leading up to the trial setting of the case, Bell applied for immunity and after a hearing the claim was denied by Judge Reagan.

Following the presentation of testimony and evidence at the sentencing hearing, Judge Reagan sentenced Bell to 25 years in the Alabama Department of Corrections. He had asked the court to impose a split sentence.

"This tragic killing never should have happened," Tarbox said. "Regardless of whether a playful event turned into more of a fight, deadly force would never have been authorized under Alabama law in this instance. Moreover, Defendant Bell, based on his criminal history, should have never had a firearm in his possession. This case is a tragic example of what happens when people mix firearms and alcohol."

Tarbox went on to state, "We appreciate Judge Reagan's sentence in this case and believe it helps reinforce that gun violence and using a firearm is not the answer. The District Attorney's Office thanks the family of Amez Shipman for their patience in waiting for this case to finally resolve after numerous continuances. We hope that this result can help close this chapter and allow the family to turn the page to more happy memories of Mr. Shipman."

CCC honors Mike Thornton with retirement celebration

The Coffee County Commission recognized long-time employee Mike Thornton during the Monday, Nov. 24, meeting as he prepared to retire to take on a new employment adventure in the Florida Panhandle.

Thornton joined the Coffee County staff in August 2000, and he became the first director of environmental services for the county in 2016. This was a job he would hold until his retirement on Nov. 30, 2025.

"In my time at Coffee County, I could not have been successful had it not been for Mike," said former Coffee County engineer Randy Tindell. "People really have no idea the impact Mike has had on environmental services, not only in Coffee County but at the state and national levels too."

Several co-workers spoke highly of Thornton as he was honored during the meeting, but it was Thornton himself that admitted his success was based on the people he had around him while working with Coffee County.

"I've been blessed with really good people," he said. "There is not a county as good as Coffee County."

In other business from the meeting, commissioners voted to contract with Seay, Seay & Litchfield for architectural services at the Coffee County Lake. These services are for improvements the county would like to see happen at the lake property.

Five vehicles from the Coffee County Sheriff's Office were approved for surplus to be sold at an upcoming JM Wood Auction.

Tyler Mock and George Webster each were approved for appointment to serve on the DHR Board for the county.

The next Coffee County Commission meeting is set for Monday, Dec. 8, at 9 a.m., in New Brockton.

Elba City Council approves resolution on surplus property

The Elba City Council voted Monday night, Nov. 24, to surplus various items of old property to be disposed of properly.

The list of property included vehicles, equipment, and other items deemed no longer needed for public purposes. They were declared as surplus property in accordance with Alabama law.

The resolution approved by the council gave authorization to the mayor and city clerk to dispose of the property by public auction, including but not limited to the use of GovDeals.com, sealed bid, or any other lawful public auction method.

The method of grouping for sale was decided by authorizing the mayor and city clerk to determine whether items should be sold individually, in lots or categories, or in bulk, depending on the best financial and practical interest to the City of Elba.

Further, the mayor was authorized to execute all documents associated with this disposal of surplus property. Items that receive no bid or have no reasonable market value may be disposed of as scrap or junk, according to the resolution. This too is at the discretion of the mayor and city clerk.

Also, during the meeting, the council voted to hold both required meetings for December on the evening of Monday, Dec. 8th. After the first meeting, which will begin at 5:30 p.m., adjourns, the council will call the second meeting for the month to order. This has been a long-standing practice for Elba during the month of December to avoid conflict with the Christmas holiday.

Area Happenings

The Elba Career Academy, a part of the Elba City School System, is conducting a unexpired/nonperishable food drive. Donations can be dropped off at Elba High School or brought to the Elba Christmas Parade (Dec. 13). The Elba Career Academy will have a float in the parade, and there will be representatives walking alongside the float collecting the food donations. This is an annual food drive held by the Elba Career Academy.

The Elba Water and Electric Board will not meet during the month of December. This decision was made by the board during its Nov. 24th meeting.

For National Llama Day there will be "Llamas in the Library" at the Elba Public Library on Tuesday, Dec. 9, at 4 p.m. All ages are welcome. There will be snacks, and of course, all will be able to pet a llama.

Following graduation, Zackie enlisted in the Alabama National Guard and later served his country in the United States Navy. In 1963, Zackie married Peggy Ann Fuller, beginning a marriage that spanned more than 62 years. Together they welcomed their son, Mark, and traveled across the country to cheer him on as he played football at Zion Chapel and Troy University.

Zackie worked with Shell Oil Company of Louisiana before returning home to work with Bradshaw Pest Control, where he became a familiar face to many families and businesses in the area. He was fondly remembered as "the chewing gum man" for his habit of giving gum to children—whether their parents approved or not.

How to Get Through the Holiday Season After the Loss of a Loved One - Blend Old Traditions with New Ones

For many people, Christmas is a favorite holiday full of many traditions. Whatever the holiday is, the first time it comes around after losing a loved one will definitely be different. With your loved one gone, the traditions just won't feel the same. Many people report they don't feel like celebrating much at all saying it just feels wrong to continue with the festivities when their loved one isn't there to participate.

If you do feel like you want to continue to celebrate it can be helpful to start blending old and new traditions together. There will likely be some traditions you want to continue, either because they are important to other family members, or because you feel like you can honor your loved one through the tradition. Other traditions you may wish to change.

Also, you will likely want to create some new traditions, particularly ones that honor and help you remember your loved one. For example, you might choose to hang up a new ornament on the tree that memorializes your loved one, or maybe you will choose to visit their grave site on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day.

It may also be that you want to switch the location of where you spend the holidays, either out of necessity if the person who used to host has passed away or because a change of venue will help ease some of your painful memories. Either way, make a thoughtful decision about where you would like to spend your holiday.

Once you have made some decisions about what traditions you want to keep or change, make sure to let everyone know your plans well in advance. Remember that other people may be grieving too, so it's best not to spring any big changes on them either at the last minute, if possible.

Be honest. If there is something you want to do or something you don't want to do, be clear. Explain your reasoning as best as possible. Hopefully you will be able to come to an agreement.

It's also important to remember that not everyone will be grieving the same way you are. Not everyone will want to spend the holidays the same way you do. The best you can do is try to compromise and realize you may have to do some things on your own if you can't come to an agreement.

Coffee County Forestry Days event held for local schools

The Coffee County Conservation District and the Coffee County Forestry Advisory Committee recently hosted four sessions of the Coffee County Forestry Days.

The events were held between Oct. 23rd and Oct. 30th. County fifth graders from Elba Elementary, Kinston Elementary, New Brockton Elementary, and Zion Chapel Elementary attended the program.

Four Enterprise schools attended which included Rucker Boulevard, Holly Hill, Pinedale, and Brookwood.

Approximately 580 fifth grade students attended this year! All four events were held at National Security Recreation property in Elba.

Exhibits included a live amphibian and reptile exhibit, Skins and Skulls, an Oh Deer! Activity, tree planting demonstration, demonstration on Invertebrates, and general forest management practices.

The event is great hands-on forestry and wildlife learning experience for students. After the activities, everyone enjoyed sack lunches.

This event was supported by a grant from the Wiregrass RC & D Council. Other organizations assisting with field days included the Alabama Forestry Commission, Coffee County Cooperative Extension System, Alabama Forestry, Natural Resources Conservation Service, and the Alabama Wildlife & Freshwater Fisheries. We offer a special thank you to National Security for the use of their property and paper supplies.

Views From

The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The entire family came over on Thanksgiving Day and everyone brought something to share as we enjoyed an afternoon of fellowship, food and football. While there was some food left, I think everyone left with a full tummy and hopefully a sense that being able to be together was indeed something to be thankful for!

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers and Lady Tigers have tipped off the basketball season and their fans are at least a little anxious to see just what the season brings. Seven of the first ten games will be on the road, but six of the next nine games in January will be at home, and by then both teams will be in area play and should be ready to make a run. The Tigers will lack size and depth, but should be as quick as any team around and will need that quickness to cancel out their shortcomings on the court if they are going to hang up a bunch of wins on the ledger. The Lady Tigers are extremely short on experience, but have a good group of girls that want to play and should only get better and better as the season rolls along. By the time the teams get into the part of the schedule that keeps them on their home court both should be experienced, understand what it takes to win and look forward to showing off in front of their fans. I think both teams will be the surprise teams in the area and am looking forward to a fun season.

 The teams in the area enjoyed a few days off during the holiday week and are now back on the court. Among the boys' teams, look for New Brockton to be the team to beat as it appears to be loaded with experience, size and shooters, while Kinston will always be competitive and be a team that can knock off anybody on any given night, and Zion Chapel will play hard for all four quarters every time it takes the court and should get better as the season progresses. Over on the girls' side, Kinston returns just about everybody from last season's team that reached the region tournament and has high expectations, while New Brockton should have one if its best teams in years and threaten to bring home an area title, and Zion Chapel should be much better than many think and could have a surprise or two up their sleeves.

 The high school football playoffs reached the semifinal round last week and while most of the teams that were expected to move on did just that, there were a few surprises in every class. In Class 1A, Maplesville beat up on Leroy 59-18 in a game that wasn't even as close as the lopsided score might indicate; in Class 2A, Lanett opened up a big lead and never looked back in an impressive 35-19 win over defending state champ Reeltown; in Class 3A, Bayside Academy made it clear Southside Selma wasn't ready to play with the big boys as it hammered the state's most over-rated team 51-20; in Class 4A, Jackson got revenge for a regular season defeat with a dominating 44-23 road win over top-ranked St. Michael's and its high-scoring air attack; in Class 5A, Vigor got revenge with a hard fought 28-21 win over area champ Williamson in a game that was played at Ladd-Peebles Stadium due the expected turnout of fans; in Class 6A, Saraland got past Benjamin Russell and its roster filled with new players and coaches 38-21 to make it back to the state finals for the fourth straight season; and, in Class 7A, perennial power Thompson and upstart Opelika got a short rest before meeting in this week's championship contest.

 I have never hidden the fact I am an Alabama fan in all sports and was happy to see the Tide win over the Tigers last weekend, but it is past time for the folks up on the Plains to finally admit their football program is broken and needs more than just another coaching change to turn things around. Since Auburn posted a 9-4 record in 2019 the Tigers have not won more than six games in a season, has now suffered through four straight losing seasons, and since way back when they posted a 12-2 record in 2013 have lost at least four games every year. The most telling fact to me is that while Auburn has an all-time record of 548-169-18 at home, since 2022 it's record at home is just 15-15. I'm sure a new head coach will pump new life into the program and give the fans hope for a return to dominance. However, Auburn already has one of the best rosters in the SEC and one of the most rabid fan bases in the nation, which to me means a quick fix won't be easy. I know it won't happen, but if I was in charge at Auburn I would get rid of athletic director John Cohen and give the job to Bruce Pearl. No one on the planet is a bigger Auburn fan than Pearl and no one on the planet would work harder to put the football program back on solid ground and return it to its glory days. Okay Auburn fans, those are the thoughts of this old Alabama fan that wants the fans to get what they deserve and for Auburn football to be a factor again after a down decade.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator hit on 10 of his 12 playoff picks last week and appears primed to close out one of his best seasons ever picking the preps. The local guesspert emailed me this week's picks and here is this week's fearless forecast.... (1A) Maplesville 28 Wadley 22, (2A) Lanett 34 Coosa Christian 33, (3A) Mars Hill 35 Bayside Academy 21, (4A) Jackson 40 Anniston 26, (5A) Moody 24 Vigor 18, (6A) Clay-Chalkville 34 Saraland 22, (7A) Thompson 38 Opelika 10.

'Super 7' in Birmingham

Prep football reaches championship week

The 30th annual AHSAA 'Super 7' state football championship pairings are now set following last week's semifinals in classes 1A through 6A, and this year's championship football qualifiers include six undefeated teams, four defending state champions and three teams that finished as state runners-up in 2024.

Montgomery Catholic and Central-Phenix City, the defending Class 1A/5A and 6A/7A girls' flag state champions, are also back to defend their titles, with Central being the seventh unbeaten team in the finals.

All games will be played at Birmingham's Protective Stadium on Dec. 3-4-5, and will be televised live over the Alabama Public Television Network and live video streamed over the NFHS Network.

Montgomery Catholic (21-4) is scheduled to challenge Moody (21-3) in a rematch of last year's Class 1A/5A girls' flag finals in this week's final round opener on Wednesday at 11 a.m., with the Class 6A/7A championship to follow with defending champion Central-Phenix City (19-0), facing Vestavia Hills (28-1) at 3 p.m. Both teams will bring long winning streaks into the title tests – 57 in a row for the Red Devils of Coach Mitchel Holt, and 28 in a row for the Rebels, coached by Debra Broome and Daniel Davis. All four flag teams have been ranked in the USA Today Top 25 this season. Central's girls, crowned national champions by USA Today last season, are currently ranked third in the latest national poll, with Vestavia Hills ranked sixth. Moody, coached by Wren Moore, handed Vestavia its only loss in the first game of the season, while Catholic, coached by Whitney Toole, is ranked 25th and is playing in its third straight state final.

Defending Class 7A state champion Thompson (10-3), coached by Mark Freeman, will kick off the boys' Super 7 championships when it meets Opelika (10-3) at 7 p.m., Wednesday night, to close out the first day's action. Freeman has guided the Warriors to their eighth consecutive Class 7A championship game, an AHSAA state team record for all classes and also a state record for Freeman as the coach. The Bulldogs, coached by Bryan Moore, are playing in the Class 7A finals for the first time in school history.

Of the six undefeated boys' teams in the Super 7, two will be in Thursday's Class 1A semifinals when defending state champion Wadley (13-0) faces Maplesville (14-0) in a rematch of last year's 2024 finals at 3 p.m. The Bulldogs, coached by first-year head coach Duke Rivers, are averaging 49.3 points a game, and the Red Devils (14-0), coached by Brad Abbott, have yielded only 45 points this season, an average of 3.2 points per game, and is also scoring 47.8 points per contest.

Saraland (13-0), the 2023 and 2024 Class 6A state runner-up, takes on Clay-Chalkville (14-0) in the Class 6A finals scheduled for Friday night, Dec. 5, at 7 p.m. The two teams met in the 2023 championship with the Cougars winning 31-28. Spartans head coach Jeff Kelly has guided his program to the 6A finals four straight seasons, winning the state crown in 2022, and during that span has guided the Spartans to an overall 54-3 record. Stuart Floyd, in his second season as Clay's head coach, has the Cougars in the finals for the third time since 2021, winning the 6A title in 2021 and 2023.

Anniston (14-0), coached by Rico Jackson, has the Class 4A Bulldogs in the state finals for the first time since 1994. His team clinched the berth Friday night with the game-winning touchdown coming with 2.3 seconds remaining to beat previously unbeaten Plainview 32-29. The week's championship match-up will be another test as Anniston will run into defending Class 4A state champion Jackson (11-2), coached by Cody Flournoy, which avenged its only 4A loss of the season by defeating previously unbeaten St. Michael Catholic (13-1) in the semifinals Friday, 44-23. The Cardinals won the regular-season game 49-39. The 4A title game will kickoff at 11 a.m., on Friday.

In Class 3A, defending state champion Mars Hill Bible (14-0), coached by Darrell Higgins, defeated previously unbeaten Piedmont (14-1) in the semifinals 48-16, while Bayside Academy (13-1), coached Barrett Trotter, downed previously unbeaten Southside-Selma (13-1) in the other 3A semifinal 51-20. Those two teams will tangle at 11 a.m. on Thursday morning.

The 5A finals will take place on Thursday night and will pit Moody (12-2), coached by Jake Ganus, in its second straight championship game, taking on Vigor (12-2) at 7 p.m. The Blue Devils beat Scottsboro 35-10, while the Wolves, coached by Renardo Jackson, downed Mobile rival Williamson 28-21 before a crowd estimated at 14,000 at Mobile's Ladd-Peebles Stadium in the other semifinal.

Coosa Christian (12-2), coached by Rush Propst, won a thrilling 44-36 victory over Pisgah (11-3) to clinch a berth in the Class 2A championship contest against Lanett (12-2), on 3 p.m., Friday at Protective Stadium. The Panthers, coached by R.J. 'Billy' McDonald, beat defending Class 2A state champion Reeltown (10-4) in the semifinals Friday. Propst is making his first appearance in the AHSAA state finals since 2006 when he led Hoover to the 6A championship game seven straight years from 2000-2006, ranked second to Thompson's Freeman overall.

What does the Bible say about... Christians?

Article written by Douglas Williams

Since the word 'Christian' is used rather freely in our world today, people are surprised that it is only found three times in the Bible. Let's look at them:

1. "And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch" (Acts 11:26).

2. "Then Agrippa said to Paul, 'You almost persuade me to be a Christian'" (Acts 26:28).

3. "Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter" (1 Peter 4:16).

The first time the word "Christian" is used is in fulfillment of Isaiah 62:2, where God, through the prophet, says He will give His people a new name. This new name would be given when "The Gentiles shall see your righteousness." In Acts 10, we read of the first Gentile, Cornelius, who converted to Christ, and in the next chapter, this new name is given.

I heard about a group of people on a train discussing religion. Various ones spoke of the denomination of which they were members. Some said they were Christians, members of the church of Christ. A man hearing this said to them, "I have been reading about you in the Bible." Others, as denominational members, became upset because he said nothing about their reading of them in the Bible. As shown in the above Scriptures, the disciples of Christ were called Christians, and then in Romans 16:16, Paul wrote, "The churches of Christ greet you." Here, Paul is referring to different congregations of the church of Christ in various locations. Otherwise, the church is spoken of as singular or one.

In Matthew 16:18, Jesus did not mention a plurality of churches, but said, "I will build my church." The Bible says there is one body, which is the church (Ephesians 4:4; 1:22-23).

After Jesus ascended to heaven, we read in Acts 2 of the gospel being preached. When people heard that they were guilty of sin, they wanted to know what to do (Acts 2:37). In Acts 2:38, they were told, as believers, to "repent and be baptized." This was carrying out the Lord's commands for people to hear the gospel, believe it, repent, confess faith in Christ, and be baptized for the remission of sins (John 8:24; Luke 13:3; Matthew 10:32; Mark 16:16).

Since we only read of one church in the Bible, and the Lord added the saved to the church, it is obvious the Lord had to add them to His church and not a denomination. Then these people are called Christians.

Greater New Zion Missionary Baptist Church collecting teddy bears for Elba Christmas Parade set for Dec. 13th

The members of Greater New Zion Missionary Baptist Church currently are collecting teddy bears, of all sizes, to hand out to children during the Elba Christmas Parade set for Saturday, Dec. 13, at 6 p.m.

The church will have a float in the parade, and members will be handing out the donated teddy bears to children along the parade route. This is the third year the church has held the teddy bear giveaway during the Elba Christmas Parade.

Teddy bear donations will be accepted by any church member prior to the parade, and The Elba Clipper office [512 Davis St W, Elba] is serving as a drop off spot as well through Friday, Dec. 12th.

Help bring a smile to a child's face by donating a teddy bear.

CHRISTMAS

What is it about Christmas that gives most people a lift? What makes them kinder and gentler? There is an extraordinary power in the story of the birth of Jesus, even for those who don't believe all of it. We have all seen some of the most secular people manifest a bit of the attitude of Jesus at Christmas, if only for a short while. For those who believe in HIM as savior, there is an abundance of Joy that does not come and go with the season because they have come to know personally the purpose for which the baby was born.
